

Are We Nearly There Yet?

Travelling can be tricky with children especially on a long journey. University Games have found a solution with their handy travel games, which will keep the whole family occupied for hours.

For little ones (ages 4+) there is the "Gruffalo Word Rhyming Game". It helps them learn by using familiar images, so children can make associations between the words and pictures. Join all the characters from the beloved tale of The Gruffalo in a race to match the most rhyming words. There is a bonus game in the box called "There's No Such Thing as a Gruffalo", which is a race to be the first to collect cards of all five characters from the story in the same colour, so the whole family can get involved.

For older children (ages 8+) the Sort it Out Game will really keep their brains active as they have to sort things in order and know the biggest, fastest, loudest, earliest, smallest of everything. It makes it a perfect way to battle your wits against your family whilst having fun at the same time.

The Gruffalo Word Rhyming game is priced at £4.99 and the Sort it Out game is priced at £7.99 and they are available from toy shops and online.
